SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

3 years as to each of counts 1-3 to run concurrently with each other.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: CADDIUS BURNELL MOORE
CASE NUMBER: 3:13-CR-99

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: CADDIUS BURNELL MOORE

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You shall reside at Diersen Charities Residential Reentry Center (RRC) in Nashville, Tennessee, for a period of up to six months, to begin on the date you are released from the Federal Bureau of Prisons and initiate supervised release. You may leave the RRC earlier if you secure alternate housing which meets the approval of the United States Probation Officer. You shall comply with all of that facility's rules and regulations, except that you shall not be required to pay subsistence while residing at the RRC.
2. You shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a residential reentry center at the direction of the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs if the Probation Officer determines the defendant as the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
3. You shall promptly advise the United States Probation Office of the name and contact information for any physician who prescribes any controlled substance and agrees to execute a release of information form so that medical records may be obtained from such physician.
4. You shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs if the United States Probation Office determines the defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
5. You shall report as soon as possible to a community mental health treatment provider in Nashville, Tennessee, to present yourself for assessment and avail yourself of all applicable treatment services offered by that provider. You shall comply with all outpatient or inpatient treatment recommendations made by the mental health provider. Specifically, you shall comply with services including, but not limited to, therapy, medication management, and case management.
6. You shall comply with any medication regimen recommended by the treatment provider, to include any oral or injectable medications that may be prescribed.
7. You shall sign a release of information for any treatment provider whose services you receive while under supervision, so that your treatment information and status can be disclosed to the United States Probation Office. You shall provide the United States Probation Office with any available documentation verifying your treatment attendance and compliance, including (but not limited to) assessment reports, schedules of upcoming appointments, and medical prescriptions.
8. You shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
9. You shall pay restitution in an amount totaling $2,870 to the following:

Auto Zone 4609 Andrew Jackson Parkway Nashville, Tennessee 37076	$2,100
M.T. (Address will be furnished separately)	$320
Advanced auto Parts 314 North Gallatin Pike Nashville, Tennessee 37115	$450

Payments shall be submitted to the Clerk, United States District Court, 801 Broadway, Room 800, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, to be forwarded to the victims listed above. If the defendant is incarcerated, payment shall begin under the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Should there be an unpaid balance when supervision commences, the defendant shall pay the remaining restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the defendant's monthly take-home income. No interest shall accrue as long as the defendant remains in compliance with the payment schedule ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the court and United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.
